

Announcement

Submissions for Volume VIII of The Graduate Review

Dear Graduate Faculty, DGCE Graduate Chairs, and Department Chairs:

The Advisory Board for The Graduate Review: A Journal of Graduate Research and Creative Scholarship invites submissions from graduate students from all disciplines. The Graduate Review is an annual interdisciplinary journal published by Bridgewater State University, entering its eighth year.

If you have read an exemplary graduate paper during spring semester 2022 or summer sessions 2022, please consider encouraging the author to submit this work for publication in Volume VIII of The Graduate Review. Submission guidelines can be found http://vc.bridgew.edu/grad\_rev/ on Virtual Commons. All submissions must be uploaded via Virtual Commons.

The fall submission deadline is December 19, 2022. A subsequent submission process will occur in the spring with a submission deadline of March 6, 2023. Both fall and spring submissions will be eligible for publication in Volume VIII, to be released in July 2023.

Submissions can consist of research studies, article manuscripts, creative writing, poetry, commentaries, book reviews, and artistic works. Manuscripts should not exceed 15,000 words.

Please feel free to contact the Principal Editor, Brian Payne, at b2payne@bridgew.edu with any questions.

With thanks for your participation,

Lisa Krissoff Boehm, PhD
Dean, College of Graduate Studies
